Cookie Policy

Introduction

G3 Remarketing Ltd uses cookies and similar technologies to distinguish users of our website. This helps us provide a good experience when you browse our website and also allows us to improve our site.

Cookies are small text files that are placed on your computer or mobile device when you visit a website. They are widely used to make websites work, or work more efficiently, as well as to provide information to the owners of the site.

How we use cookies

We use the following types of cookies:

- Strictly necessary cookies
These cookies are essential for the operation of our website. They enable core functionality such as security, network management, and accessibility. These cookies do not require your consent.
- Analytical / performance cookies
These cookies allow us to recognise and count visitors and see how users move around our website. This helps us improve the way our website works.
- Functionality cookies
These cookies are used to recognise you when you return to our website and remember your preferences.
- Targeting cookies
These cookies record your visit, the pages you have visited, and the links you have followed. This information may be used to make content and advertising more relevant to your interests.

Consent to cookies

We will only use non-essential cookies (such as analytics and marketing cookies) where you have provided your consent.

You can accept or reject non-essential cookies through the cookie banner when you first visit our website. You can also manage or change your preferences at any time via the “Cookie Preferences” link on our website.

Third-party cookies

Some cookies may be set by third parties, such as analytics providers or service partners. These third parties may use cookies to collect information about your online activities.

We do not control these cookies. You should refer to the relevant third-party privacy notices for more information.

Managing cookies

You can control and manage cookies in several ways:

- Use the cookie preference controls available on our website
- Adjust your browser settings to block or delete cookies
